B Dispute the penalty

- Owners can request civil penalties be dismissed by scheduling an in person hearing or sending in a written dispute
- An administrative judge can't reduce your penalties, they can only decide if you are liable or not
- For a civil penalty to be dismissed you must prove that your vehicle was transferred, stolen, sold, leased or rented before the toll incurred
- Fill out the written dispute in lieu of hearing form included with your civil penalty notice to submit a written dispute
- Contact the customer service center to request an in person hearing in either Seattle or Fife.

3 Don't ignore a notice!

Failure to pay or respond = collections and a hold on your vehicle registration
